

CRIME BRANCH MANAGEMENT SYSTEM SCREENSHOTS

Missing person form

The screenshot shows a web application window titled "container_form" with a menu bar containing "First Information Report", "Complaint Registration", "Post Mortem Reports", "Criminals Records", "Finger Print Matcher", and "Close". The background features a large image of a gavel and handcuffs. On the left, there is a "MISSING" poster for Elizabeth Enns, a woman with long brown hair, born May 11, 1985, with a reward of $5,000. Below it is a "Most Wanted Person" poster for a man. The main form, titled "Missing Person", has a "Complaint Number" field and a "Missing Person Details" section. The details section includes fields for Name, Sex (a dropdown menu), DOB (17 May 2021), Eyes, Hair, Missing From (17 May 2021), Last seen wearing, and Last seen At (17 May 2021). A "Save" button is at the bottom of the form.
